Representation of Mr.A.Ananda Rao,Munsiff, retired

I put up herewith a memo of representation that was submitted by Mr. A. Ananda Rao, retired Munsiff, to the Dewan, praying for "mercy and help", as also a petition subsequently presented by the aged father of Mr. Ananda Rao. Mr. H. V. Ramaswami told me that the Dewan was pleased to say that as the family appeared to be in straitened circumstances, the feasibility of giving some further relief by enhancing the officer's pension might be examined.

The circumstances that led up to his compulsory retirement from service on a pension of Rs.50/- p.m. are enumerated in G.O. No.371-72/C.B. 163-36-5 dated 22nd July 1937.

It is seen from the discussions in the file put up that the officer's actual qualifying service was(then) expected to amount to a little less than 10 years and it was calculated that if a few months' shortage were condoned and a further addition of 3 years allowed (for having been recruited from the Bar) as a special case, a pension of Rs.54/- might be allowed on the basis of a total service of 13 years. After a consideration of all the circumstances, a pension of Rs.50/- was sanctioned to him as a special case. He has been subsequently given 9 months' leave, and the extent of his actual service has increased to some extent thereby Any enhancement of pension can, however, be only on an arbitrary basis outside the ordinary rules and his pension may, perhaps, be enhanced from Rs.50/- to Rs.70

The father of Mr. Ananda Rao pleads that an appointment in any suitable department may be given to M. Ananda Rao. Re-instatement on his previous pay and status is, of course, out of question. Even his entertainment on a reduced pay in a ministerial post presents several difficulties. In the circumstances, the proposal to enhance the pension is submitted for orders.

So far as pension is concerned, the present case has already been dealt with very leniently, and increase of pension does not seem to be justifiable or desirable.

8.8.38

I think the pension may be increased as a very special case to Rs 70 as recommended by the Ch Sec'y. There can be no question of reinstatement

I would very respectfully beg to represent as follows:-

This is a case of compulsory retirement for unsatisfactory work and according to Article 223 M.S.R. no pension is admissible ordinarily in such cases, and even in special cases it has to be limited to 2/3 of the pension admissible to the officer if he had been retired on medical certificat In the present case, even after allowing full pensic and after adding 3 years' service as a special case, the pension admissible would be only Rs 54/-. The proposal to sanction a pension of Rs 70/- (Rs 16/- mo than what he would have got even with special concessions) does not seem to be appropriate particula -ly in a case in which a reduction is justifiable. I would submit that if the present pension of Rs 50/ is considered low, it may be raised to Rs 54/- and further help to the officer may be in the shape of special scholarship to his children etc., instead o sanctioning a pension much more than what even the rules permit after allowing all possible concession.

Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith a Final Note by the First Member of Council re: enhanced pension to Mr.A.Ananda Rao, Munsiff, for His Highness' gracious approval.

Mirza M. Ismail
Dewan.
24-8-38

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject.—

Enhanced pension to Mr. A. Ananda Rao, Munsiff.

With His Highness' gracious sanction, Mr. A. Ananda Rao, Munsiff, Second Grade, doing duty as Special First Class Magistrate, French Rocks, was compulsorily retired from service from August 1937, on a pension of Rs.50 per mensem. He was also subsequently given nine months leave as a special case. Mr. Ananda Rao has been repeatedly representing to Government for a reconsideration of the order, and for reinstatement, in view of the fact that his premature retirement at such an early age would involve very heavy loss to him.

Mr. Ananda Rao's actual qualifying service is a little less than ten years, and by condoning the shortage of a few months, and adding three years allowed under the rules for having been recruited from the Bar, a pension of Rs.54 is allowable. Under Article 223 of the Mysore Service Regulations, the pension that may be granted to an officer compulsorily retired for unsatisfactory work is restricted to two-thirds of what is ordinarily admissible. Mr. Ananda Rao was, however, granted Rs.50 as a special case. In view however of the very special circumstances of the case and Mr. Ananda Rao's repeated representations, I think the pension may be increased to Rs.70. There can be no question of reinstatement.

The Financial Secretary is of opinion that the proposal to grant increased pension does not seem to be appropriate, particularly in a case in which reduction is justifiable, and that if at all any further increase is called for, the pension may be raised to Rs.54 which is the maximum full pension admissible for 13 years years service. As I have stated already, the proposal to grant a pension of Rs.70 is on an arbitrary basis as a special case. The Second Member of Council and the Dewan agree with me, and it may be graciously sanctioned.

For favour of perusal

Sir:

I belong to a very respectable family of Lawyers at Nara simharajapura Kadur District. I have now six sons and three daughters young of whom my eldest son by name Anandarao M.A. LL.B, who was practising as a lawyer was appointed by you, Sir, as Munsiff 10 years ago, and was doing the duty of a Magistrate all through.

He being the eldest son was obliged to take the responsibility of maintaining the family, consisting of 20 souls as I had to take rest on account of my old age. (75)

To my misfortune and to the misfortune of my family, the Government of Mysore, are pleased to order him to take a pension of Rs 50, and retire.

His removal from service is a death blow to the family as there is no one capable of maintaing the same.

Anandarao having left his practice as a lawyer long long ago has lost all his clients, and so, it is beyond conception, to take up the profession again, and thrive as a lawyer & maintain my family. The whole family was depending upon the income of Anandarao now, having no other means of livelyhood.

As I am very old & helpless, I most humbly beg permission to request you to show mercy on the helpless family, and Kindly forgive him of all his faults and restore him to his appointment.

in case you are not graciously pleased to keep him in the judicial line, I earnestly request you to appoint him in any other department, you may be pleased to think fit and thus allow me to lead a peaceful life in my present age.

It is no doubt his misfortune, I should say, he had to lose his appointment during your Dewanship, as you hurt no one till now, as far as I know, but on the other hand, you have graciously rescued and saved good many officers and officials from distress.

The extension of the tenure of Dewanship, as I have explained in my farewell address, I gave some days back to you, is due to your kindness and popularity you have been showing to the subjects of our beloved Maharaja, Sree Krishnaraja Wodayer Bahadur G.C.S.I.

So, I most humbly beg that you may graciously be pleased, to extend your kindness & sympathy & generosity to my poor son, Ananda Rao by appointing him in any suitable department, and thus save my family and young children from present distress.

For which act of kindness and generosity, both my family & myself pray for your long life and prosperity

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient & humble Servt

Retired Pleader

I beg permission to add as a last resort that I have a son by my second wife, by name A, Rama Rao, B.A. (1) whom I have introduced to you along with my address & who has put in several applications to C.R.B. for the past 3 years but to my misfortune he has not been able to get any.

Now, if you are of opinion that, under the present circumstances my family deserves your sympathy & kindness I most humbly pray that you may be pleased to appoint Ramarao as a probationer in the Secretariat or in any other Office, you may be pleased to appoint, & thus save our large family from present distress, as we have no means & income to maintain ourselves.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient & humble Servant

There is a petition from Mr. A. Seshachalayya, father of Mr. Ramarao who retired recently, requesting that the latter may be re-employed in the service for reasons stated in it. Some time ago the Dewan sent a note to me (Secretary) asking him to speak to him (Dewan) about Mr. Ramarao's case. This petition may also be sent to the (illegible)
